

JUDGES

STUART BEALS

Stuart graduated from Kansas University with a Master of Arts in Journalism and Mass Communication. He worked as a freelance photographer focusing on editorial illustration and corporate communications, and was museum photographer at the University of Kansas Museum of Art. He founded the Johnson County Community College's photography program in 1975, teaching all courses offered. In 1999, Stu transferred to the Interactive Media program at JCCC, concentrating on imaging and video courses. He retired from full time teaching this year.

DAN DAKOTAS

Dan taught art at Shawnee Mission West for thirty six years where he was the recipient of numerous teaching awards including Outstanding Secondary Art Educator, Kansas Art Educator and the Excellence in Teaching award for the greater Kansas City area. He has also taught part time for several regional colleges and universities. Dan's work has been selected for inclusion in two books: "A Heartland Portrait," and "Alternative Photography;" and one of his photographs traveled with the Texas Photographic Society exhibit for two years. Dan has displayed his work locally, nationally and internationally in galleries and juried shows.

DEB ASHLOCK

Deb has been a teacher of art for thirty-five years including Perry-Lecompton High School and Highland Community College. She is now semi-retired and teaching art three days a week. Her other interests include training and showing her dogs. Deb earned a Ph.D. from Kansas University in Visual Arts Education. She exhibited at KU, and three juried regional exhibitions as the Nelson-Atkins Museum. She was artist-in-residence for the West Franklin School District. Deb wrote and directed a Federal Arts Education Grant designed to enhance art education by educating high school principals about arts education.

THE ART SHACK BOOTH

MARGARET JOHNSTON 12
has been painting for 30 years and is a long-time De Soto resident where she has raised her family. She enjoys art for fun and recreation.

SHARON R. LUNN * 12
has been doing art since she was three and comes from a family of artists. She is retired from her profession of nursing and paints as a hobby for the past five years.

NEVA SHAW * 12
has taken her passion for life and translated into painting! She has been painting enthusiastically for many years!

These ladies have studied under Rita Huscher for many years and dedicate their show to her in loving memory.

ROSE M. BURGWEGER BOOTH 7
came to rural De Soto ten years ago, previously residing in Moline and Chicago, Illinois. There she taught and worked in graphic design. She takes many local, rural photos, and interweaves scripture with many themes. She has compiled a variety of card and print collections and yearly desktop calendar. www.rmbprints.com

JOHN BURNS * BOOTH 18
has been painting for 20 years. He started in oils, but now works mainly in acrylics, doing landscapes, animals, and florals. Member of Olathe Visual Artists and First Art Gallery of Olathe. jonbec1@att.net

DON DANE ● BOOTH 11
has always been intrigued by the west and it's history. Many of his paintings depicts scenes of working cowboys conducting business on ranches around the country. Because American wildlife is as much a part of our country's history as the cowboy, he likes to blend the two subjects on occasions into one composition or individually. www.dondanestudio.com

CAROLYN (CARRIE) DVORAK * BOOTH 5
has been taking pictures since her high school years in 4-H and has worked as a journalist and photographer since college. Scenes in her pictures come from anywhere she can take her camera. Her goal is to encourage and inspire through images of God's world and some of her work is combined with Scripture - leading to the title of her print and card line, "The Nature of God."
c\_dvorak@earthlink.net

MARSENE FELDT BOOTH 17
focuses on recycling nature and inspirational symbolism. She has a deep appreciation for the flora and fauna that surrounds her home. Her art often includes a variety of insects so that people will understand their importance to our ecosystem as well as their beauty.
marsenef@yahoo.com

CATHI FREUND ***
is a water-color artist that is inspired by nature, the abundant gifts that God has given, and appreciates "beautiful things". She has been blessed as a professional artist for over 30 years, working for Hallmark Cards as an illustrator, creating licensed designs for calendars, cards and gift books. She also paints home and gardens on location. Cathi.Freund@kc.rr.com

CINDY HELLER ***
does digital photography that is inspired from her garden. She also does notecards and a calendar.
cindyh3571@yahoo.com

KATHY HORNIMAN * ● BOOTH 6
works with Magnetic, inverted Duty Wire to create wonderful unique Copper Trees. She uses a variety of gauges of wires, depending on the project. Her trees are secured on wood or stone bases. She creates diverse characters within these trees...peaceful, stormy, ethereal. Her artwork brings her much satisfaction.

ALYNN JACKSON * BOOTH 18
is a practicing artist and art teacher for 30+ years. She likes to express her creativity in a variety of media—ceramic sculpture, water color, drawing and paper mache. She enjoys working from traditional to whimsical subject matter. bobalynn@everestkc.net

ELAINE LIERLY JONES * BOOTH 14
is a Kansas City native with an Art Therapy degree. As an award winning artist, Elaine has always loved to draw and pastels are her favorite medium. By layering colors on a textured surface, she strives to create exciting paintings with life and depth. elainelierlyjones@embarqmail.com

GAIL KALLEM * BOOTH 15
makes a variety of jewelry, She combines many different kinds of beads with a variety of metals—primarily copper and silver. jkallem@kc.rr.com

JULIE LEGG * BOOTH 12
"Well-composed, color-saturated celebrations of natural beauty" are the words Artkc365.com uses to describe Julie's photography. It is her deep desire to compose astonishing, breathtaking floral photography—"flowerscapes", as opposed to landscapes. "It has always been natural for me to see God's hand in such a complicated yet simple design as a flower" Julie says. She enjoys placing Scripture in her art and matches each flower with a compatible verse.

DICK STINE * BOOTH 10
Dick Stine retired from his of career teaching in the communication arts, and has only recently begun developing his appreciation of the visual arts. He spends much time seeking scenes that evoke a sense that "this must be shared." Often his inspiration comes in the Flint Hills, the Ozark mountains, western Kansas, parks, back roads of America, even the cities and villages of Italy; but just as often, they are within the woods of his own log home. dkstine@kc.rr.com

JIM WALKER * ● BOOTH 8
Jim has been behind a camera, taking pictures for over 50 years, but only started professionally three years ago. He features rural and scenic landscapes, particularly from our state of Kansas. In addition, Jim has a passion for shooting black and white. He uses film and digital cameras. Jim displays his photography at the First Art Galley of Olathe. www.jimwalkerphotography.net
